Meeting Room Waiver

Before reading and signing the meeting room waiver, please read the ACPL meeting room policy in its entirety, which is located at <http://www.albanycountylibrary.org/meeting-room-policy.aspx>

I, the undersigned, on behalf of the above organization, have read the entire meeting room policy. I agree to inform the participants of all regulations governing the use of these rooms, to abide by these regulations, to accept full liability for any damage to facilities or equipment while responsible for these rooms and to confine the organization's activities to the assigned room. I understand the group may be billed if the room(s) is not cleaned and returned to its original state following the meeting.

I understand that the library is not liable for any accidents, injury, or loss of property, which may occur in connection with use of the meeting rooms. I also understand that the library does not provide any liability protection for users of the meetings rooms and that users are responsible for damages to others.

I understand that, as a public institution dedicated to the free expression of and open access to ideas from all points of view, meeting rooms and exhibit space in the Albany County Public Library are available on equal terms for the lawful activities of all groups, regardless of their beliefs or affiliations. Permission to use the library facilities does not constitute an endorsement by the library staff, board or the county, of the groups or its beliefs.

I understand that my room reservation is not a firm commitment until this form is signed and am aware that the room rental may require a fee from the organization.
